RESPONSE

Customer Window, Mail Stop Amendments Honorable Commissioner for Patents U.S. Patent and Trademark Office 2011 South Clark Place Crystal Plaza Two, Lobby, Room 1B03 Arlington, Virginia 22202

Sir:

The present communication is responsive to the Official Action of June 14, 2006. Claims 1-15 presently appear in this case. All of the claims have been subject to an election requirement. Prompt consideration on the merits and allowance of all the claims now present in the case is respectfully urged.

The examiner stated that the application contains inventions drawn to patentably distinct species and applicant has been required to elect a method employing a specific synthetic peptide comprising either a single peptide, a dual synthetic peptide or a peptide polymer, further comprising SEQ ID NO: 1-5 or 7-10 or a specific combination of said sequence id numbers. The examiner further required that applicant list all claims readable thereon, including those subsequently added. The examiner stated that claim 1 is currently generic.

Appln. No. 10/620,621 Amd. dated August 14, 2006

Reply to Office Action of June 14, 2006

It is not understood why the Examiner has excluded SEQ ID NO: 6 from the list of sequence id numbers that have been specifically claimed. Claim 7 specifically claims the sequence of SEQ ID NO: 6, which is a species of SEQ ID NO: 1. Presumably, this was an inadvertent oversight. In any event, SEQ ID NO: 6 is precisely the specific synthetic peptide that applicant wishes to elect for the purpose of initial examination. It is understood, however, that if this species is found to be allowable, that the examiner will consider the other species presently claimed.

Claims 1, 5, 6, 7 and 15 read on the elected  $\alpha$

Accordingly, prompt consideration and allowance of the elected claims and subsequent examination and allowance of all the claims are earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,

BROWDY AND NEIMARK, P.L.L.C. Attorneys for Applicant
